Genesis 6<sup>14-22</sup>

Make yourself an ark of cypress wood; make rooms in the ark, and cover it inside and out with pitch. This is how you are to make it: the length of the ark three hundred cubits, its width fifty cubits, and its height thirty cubits. Make a roof for the ark, and finish it to a cubit above, and put the door of the ark in its side; make it with lower, second, and third decks. For my part, I am going to bring a flood of waters on the earth, to destroy from under heaven all flesh in which is the breath of life; everything that is on the earth shall die. But I will establish my covenant with you, and you shall come into the ark, you, your sons, your wife, and your sons' wives with you. And of every living thing, of all flesh, you shall bring two of every kind into the ark, to keep them alive with you; they shall be male and female. Of the birds according to their kinds and of the animals according to their kinds, of every creeping thing of the ground according to its kind, two of every kind shall come in to you, to keep them alive. Also take with you every kind of food that is eaten, and store it up, and it shall serve as food for you and for them." Noah did this; he did all that God commanded him.

2 Peter 2<sup>5</sup>

and if he did not spare the ancient world, even though he saved Noah, a herald of righteousness, with seven others, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly;

Call to Worship

Come, let us worship the God who calls us into His covenant of grace.

We come to the One who provides refuge in the storm.

God said to Noah, “Make yourself an ark of gopher wood,” for He would establish His covenant with him.

We trust in the God who saves, who preserves life through His promises.

The floodwaters of judgment remind us of God’s righteousness, but the ark reminds us of His mercy.

How great is our God, who rescues and redeems!

Let us enter into worship as those invited into the safety of His presence.

We come with thanksgiving, for our God is faithful and mighty to save!
