

Today's Scripture Reading

Matthew 4¹²⁻²³

Now when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he withdrew to Galilee. He left Nazareth and made his home in Capernaum by the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, so that what had been spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled:

“Land of Zebulun, land of Naphtali,
on the road by the sea, across the Jordan, Galilee of the gentiles—
the people who sat in darkness
have seen a great light,
and for those who sat in the region and shadow of death
light has dawned.”

From that time Jesus began to proclaim, “Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

As he walked by the Sea of Galilee, he saw two brothers, Simon, who is called Peter, and Andrew his brother, casting a net into the sea—for they were fishers. And he said to them, “Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people.” Immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went from there, he saw two other brothers, James son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. Immediately they left the boat and their father and followed him.

Jesus went throughout all Galilee, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom and curing every disease and every sickness among the people.”

Call to Worship

Friends of God, today Jesus calls to each of us: "Come! Follow me!"

The kingdom of heaven has come near.

Some say, "But we are walking in darkness."

In Christ, we have seen God's light.

The kingdom of heaven has come near.

Some say, "But divisions tear us apart."

In Christ we are united in mind and purpose.

The kingdom of heaven has come near.

Friends of God, today we gather to worship God and to follow Jesus.

The kingdom of heaven has come near.
