Today's Scripture Reading

Deuteronomy 26[1-11]

When you have entered the land the Lord your God is giving you as an inheritance and have taken possession of it and settled in it, take some of the firstfruits of all that you produce from the soil of the land the Lord your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place the Lord your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name and say to the priest in office at the time, "I declare today to the Lord your God that I have come to the land the Lord swore to our ancestors to give us." The priest shall take the basket from your hands and set it down in front of the altar of the Lord your God. Then you shall declare before the Lord your God: "My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people and lived there and became a great nation, powerful and numerous. But the Egyptians mistreated us and made us suffer, subjecting us to harsh labor. Then we cried out to the Lord, the God of our ancestors, and the Lord heard our voice and saw our misery, toil and oppression. So the Lord brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with signs and wonders. He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey; and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, Lord, have given me." Place the basket before the Lord your God and bow down before him. Then you and the Levites and the foreigners residing among you shall rejoice in all the good things the Lord your God has given to you and your household.

Call to Worship

The earth is the Lord’s, and all that is in it;

The world, and all who live in it.

In the harvest of the fields and the work of our hands, we see God’s generosity.

All we have is a gift, and all we are is held in God’s care.

Today we remember the saints who have gone before us.

We thank God for their faith, their love, and their witness.

Even as we grieve, we trust the promise of the risen Christ.

In Christ, death does not have the final word.

God has blessed us so that we may be a blessing to others.

We offer our gifts, our service, and our lives to God.

Come, let us rejoice in the goodness of the Lord!

All that we are, and all that we have, belongs to God. Let us worship!
