Today’s Liturgy

Confession & Pardon:

Liturgist: God, whose mercy and love survives the grave, we confess to you with shame and guilt of our human failings that we have failed to be people known by love in word, deed, and motive.

People: We do so confess

Liturgist: We confess that we have fled from the truth of the gospel, too often staying silent in fear of earthly rejection.

People: We do so confess.

Liturgist: We plead for forgiveness that we have placed our wants above the needs of others. We have used excuses and ambivalence to ignore the cries of the needy. We have sinned through excuses and denials that keep our hearts apathetic and our tongues mute.

People: We do so plead

Liturgist: We pray for forgiveness for however it is, in subtle and sometimes in not-so-subtle ways we have not reflected Christ through his example of self-sacrifice. Forgive us of our sins, we pray, and by participating in the Eucharistic feast, we may be renewed for ministry, submit to your will in our lives, and demonstrate our faith in our words, deeds, and motives.

People: We do so pray for freedom of sin and death.

Pastor: People of God, may the Lord God Almighty, who gives us unmerited grace in the example of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, forgive you of your sins, offer you repentance, and bring reconciliation and love to the forefront of your life. Therefore, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

All: Glory to God. Amen.
