

Today's Scripture Reading

Hebrews 3⁷⁻¹⁹

Therefore, as the Holy Spirit says,

Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion,
on the day of testing in the wilderness,
where your fathers put me to the test
and saw my works for forty years.

Therefore I was provoked with that generation,
and said, 'They always go astray in their heart;
they have not known my ways.'

As I swore in my wrath,
'They shall not enter my rest.'"

Take care, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil, unbelieving heart, leading you to fall away from the living God. But exhort one another every day, as long as it is called "today," that none of you may be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin. For we have come to share in Christ, if indeed we hold our original confidence firm to the end. As it is said,

"Today, if you hear his voice,
do not harden your hearts as in the rebellion."

For who were those who heard and yet rebelled? Was it not all those who left Egypt led by Moses? And with whom was he provoked for forty years? Was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness? And to whom did he swear that they would not enter his rest, but to those who were disobedient? So we see that they were unable to enter because of unbelief.

Call to Worship

We gather to worship, celebrating the boundless love of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Who shines as the radiance of God's glory.

From the rising of the sun to its setting, we lift our voices in praise.

God reigns over all the earth.

We join with Christ followers from every corner of the globe,

We unite in worship, giving thanks for the gift of Jesus by celebrating the bread and cup He shared. Amen.
