

Today's Scripture Reading

Micah 6¹⁻⁸

Hear what the Lord says:

Rise, plead your case before the mountains,
and let the hills hear your voice.

Hear, you mountains, the case of the Lord,
and you enduring foundations of the earth,
for the Lord has a case against his people,
and he will contend with Israel.

"O my people, what have I done to you?

In what have I wearied you? Answer me!
For I brought you up from the land of Egypt
and redeemed you from the house of slavery,
and I sent before you Moses,
Aaron, and Miriam.

O my people, remember now what King Balak of Moab devised,
what Balaam son of Beor answered him,
and what happened from Shittim to Gilgal,
that you may know the saving acts of the Lord."

"With what shall I come before the Lord and bow myself before God on high?

Shall I come before him with burnt offerings,
with calves a year old?

Will the Lord be pleased with thousands of rams,
with ten thousands of rivers of oil?

Shall I give my firstborn for my transgression,
the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?"

He has told you, O mortal, what is good,
and what does the Lord require of you
but to do justice and to love kindness and to walk humbly with your God?

Call to Worship

What does the Lord require of us?

To do justice, love kindness,
and walk humbly with our God.

With what shall we come before the Lord?

With speech that is gentle,
and words that build up.

How shall we live our faith?

With actions that bring peace,
and works that lift up the lowly.

Come and worship God in spirit and in truth.

We come to worship with open hearts. Amen.
