

Today's Scripture Reading

John 8¹²⁻²⁰

Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness but will have the light of life." Then the Pharisees said to him, "You are testifying on your own behalf; your testimony is not valid." Jesus answered, "Even if I testify on my own behalf, my testimony is valid because I know where I have come from and where I am going, but you do not know where I come from or where I am going. You judge by human standards; I judge no one. Yet even if I do judge, my judgment is valid, for it is not I alone who judge but I and the father who sent me. In your law it is written that the testimony of two witnesses is valid. I testify on my own behalf, and the father who sent me testifies on my behalf." Then they said to him, "Where is your father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my father also." He spoke these words while he was teaching in the treasury of the temple, but no one arrested him, because his hour had not yet come.

Call to Worship

In the beginning God said:

“Let there be light”

And there was light.

And God saw that the light was good.

In the beginning was the Word,

And the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

What has come into being in him was life.

And the life was the light of all people.

The light shines in the darkness,

And the darkness did not overcome it.

The Light is the foundation of the church;

Jesus Christ is the basis of all we believe.

Rejoice in the Word,

Step into the light and sing of God’s glory.
