

Today's Scripture Reading

2 Kings 4¹⁻⁷

Now the wife of a member of the company of prophets cried to Elisha, "Your servant my husband is dead, and you know that your servant feared the Lord, but a creditor has come to take my two children as slaves." Elisha said to her, "What shall I do for you? Tell me, what do you have in the house?" She answered, "Your servant has nothing in the house except a jar of oil." He said, "Go outside, borrow vessels from all your neighbors, empty vessels—and not just a few. Then go in, shut the door behind you and your children, and start pouring into all these vessels; when each is full, set it aside." So she left him and shut the door behind her and her children; they kept bringing vessels to her, and she kept pouring. When the vessels were full, she said to her son, "Bring me another vessel." But he said to her, "There are no more." Then the oil stopped flowing. She came and told the man of God, and he said, "Go sell the oil and pay your debts, and you and your children can live on the rest."

Call to Worship

On this All Saints Sunday, we join our voices with all who have gone before us: those whose faith was poured out like oil before God. Together, we come to worship the One who multiplies every act of love and faith.

A widow cried out in desperation, her jar nearly empty, her hope running dry.

But the God of mercy heard her cry and multiplied what little she had.

Bring your emptiness, your fears, your needs before the Lord.

We come with open jars and open hearts, trusting in God's provision.

Marching to Zion (vs. 1&2)

God takes what seems small and insignificant and fills it to overflowing.

In God's hands, scarcity becomes sufficiency, and grace knows no limit.

Let us worship the God who meets us in our need and leads us into abundance.

With faith, we pour out what we have and receive more than enough.

Marching to Zion (vs. 3&4)
