

Today's Scripture Reading

Exodus 2¹⁻³

Now a man from the house of Levi went and married a Levite woman. The woman conceived and bore a son, and when she saw that he was a fine baby, she hid him three months. When she could hide him no longer she got a papyrus basket for him and plastered it with bitumen and pitch; she put the child in it and placed it among the reeds on the bank of the river.

Exodus 3¹⁻⁴

Moses was keeping the flock of his father-in-law Jethro, the priest of Midian; he led his flock beyond the wilderness and came to Mount Horeb, the mountain of God. There the angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire out of a bush; he looked, and the bush was blazing, yet it was not consumed. Then Moses said, "I must turn aside and look at this great sight and see why the bush is not burned up." When the Lord saw that he had turned aside to see, God called to him out of the bush, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am."

Call to Worship

Come, people of God, and remember the faithfulness of the Lord!

We remember how God was with His people, even in their suffering.

From bondage and fear, from uncertainty and struggle, God raised up a deliverer.

Like Moses, we are called to trust in God’s leading.

The Lord speaks from the burning bush, calling us to His holy purpose.

Here we are, Lord! Speak, for we are listening!

God calls us to go, to serve, and to bring His message of freedom.

We will follow, for the great I AM goes before us!

Come, let us worship the Lord, who calls us into His mission.

We worship the God who sees, who hears, and who delivers! Amen!
