

Today's Scripture Reading

Revelation 2¹⁻⁷

"To the angel of the church in Ephesus write: These are the words of him who holds the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands:

"I know your works, your toil and your endurance. I know that you cannot tolerate evildoers; you have tested those who claim to be apostles but are not and have found them to be false. I also know that you are enduring and bearing up for the sake of my name and that you have not grown weary. But I have this against you, that you have abandoned the love you had at first. Remember, then, from where you have fallen; repent and do the works you did at first. If not, I will come to you and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent. Yet this is to your credit: you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. Let anyone who has an ear listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To everyone who conquers, I will give permission to eat from the tree of life that is in the paradise of God.

Call to Worship

The One who walks among the lampstands calls us to gather.

Christ knows our deeds, our endurance, and our hearts.

Yet the Lord also says, “You have abandoned the love you had at first.”

Search us, O God, and lead us back to love.

Let all who have ears listen to what the Spirit is saying to the church.

We come to worship the One who call us to return.
