

Today's Scripture Reading

Ruth 1^{1-6, 14-17} In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a certain man of Bethlehem in Judah went to live in the country of Moab, he and his wife and two sons. The name of the man was Elimelech and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion; they were Ephrathites from Bethlehem in Judah. They went into the country of Moab and remained there. But Elimelech, the husband of Naomi, died, and she was left with her two sons. These took Moabite wives; the name of the one was Orpah and the name of the other Ruth. When they had lived there about ten years, both Mahlon and Chilion also died, so that the woman was left without her two sons and her husband.

Then she started to return with her daughters-in-law from the country of Moab, for she had heard in the country of Moab that the Lord had considered his people and given them food.

Then they wept aloud again. Orpah kissed her mother-in-law goodbye, but Ruth clung to her.

So she said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law." But Ruth said,

"Do not press me to leave you,
to turn back from following you!

Where you go, I will go;
where you lodge, I will lodge;
your people shall be my people
and your God my God.

Where you die, I will die,
and there will I be buried.

May the Lord do thus to me,
and more as well,

if even death parts me from you!"

Call to Worship

Come, all who seek the Lord's presence! He calls us to follow Him with our whole hearts.

Like Ruth, we commit ourselves to the Lord, saying,
"Where you go, we will go."

In times of uncertainty, God remains our refuge and strength.

We trust in His unfailing love and His guiding hand.

The Lord is faithful through every season, leading us from despair to hope, from sorrow to joy.

We rejoice in the God who never leaves us nor forsakes us!

Let us worship the One who calls, sustains, and redeems!

With hearts of trust and voices of praise,
we worship the Lord our God! Amen.
