Closing Song: ""

Prayer of Confession:

Liturgist: God, whose mercy and love endures forever, we confess to you with shame and guilt of our human failings that we have failed to be people known by love in word, deed, and motive.

People: We do so confess

Liturgist: We confess that we have doubted your presence and protection, even when your majesty is in plain view.

People: We do so confess

Liturgist: We confess that we have placed our wants above others needs. We have used excuses and ambivalence to ignore the cries of the needy. We have sinned through excuses and denials that keep us emotional distant from one another. We plead for your forgiveness of our sins of pride, greed, coveting, and sloth.

People: We do so plead

Liturgist: We pray for forgiveness for however it is, in subtle and sometimes in not-so-subtle ways we are stiff-necked people, rather than reflecting Christ through his example of self-sacrifice. Forgive us of our sins, we pray, and by participating in the Eucharistic feast, we may be renewed for ministry, submit to your will in our lives, and demonstrate our faith in our words, deeds, and motives.

People: We do so pray for freedom of sin and death.

Prayer of Pardon:

Pastor: People of God, may the Lord God Almighty, who gives us unmerited grace in the example of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, forgive you of your sins, offer you repentance, and bring reconciliation and love to the forefront of your life. Therefore, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ,
you are forgiven.

ALL: Glory to God. Amen.
