Prayer of Confession:

Liturgist: God, whose mercy and love endures forever, we confess to you with shame and guilt of our human failings that we have failed to be people known by love in word, deed, and motive.

People: We do so confess

Liturgist: We confess that we have unbalanced the balance between our relationships with each other, nature, and most especially, with you.

People: We do so confess

Liturgist: We confess that we have rebelled against the way you created the world, been lured by Eve's seduction to "know all things," lived out Cain's words that we are not our brother's keepers by not seeing others as equally made in the image of God. We have sinned through excuses and denials that keep us emotional distant from one another. We plead for your forgiveness of our sins of pride, greed, coveting, and sloth.

People: We do so plead

Liturgist: We pray for forgiveness for however it is, in subtle and sometimes in not-so-subtle ways we have contributed to grieving God to his heart and being a part of worldly enticements rather than reflecting Christ through self-sacrifice. Forgive us of our sins, we pray, and by participating in the Eucharistic feast, we may be renewed for ministry, submit to your will in our lives, and demonstrate our faith in our words, deeds, and motives.

People: We do so pray for freedom of sin and death.

Prayer of Pardon:

Pastor: People of God, may the Lord God Almighty, who gives us unmerited grace in the example of the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus Christ, forgive you of your sins, offer you repentance, and bring reconciliation and love to the forefront of your life. Therefore, in the name of Jesus Christ, you are forgiven.

People: In the name of Jesus Christ,
you are forgiven.

ALL: Glory to God. Amen.

Focus Scripture: Genesis 9:8-17

Morning Message: "Restoration"
