

Today's Scripture Reading

Revelation 21<sup>1-5</sup>

Then I saw "a new heaven and a new earth," for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away, and there was no longer any sea. I saw the Holy City, the new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, prepared as a bride beautifully dressed for her husband. And I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Look! God's dwelling place is now among the people, and he will dwell with them. They will be his people, and God himself will be with them and be their God. 'He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death' or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

He who was seated on the throne said, "I am making everything new!" Then he said, "Write this down, for these words are trustworthy and true."

Call to Worship

Creation groans as it waits to be set free from its bondage to decay.
We also groan inwardly, awaiting the redemption of our bodies.

In hope we wait with patience for what we do not yet see.
The One seated on the throne declares, “Behold, I am making all things new.”

God will dwell with his people and wipe every tear from their eyes.
Death will be no more;
mourning and crying and pain will be no more.

The river of life will flow from the throne of God and of the Lamb.
The curse will be removed, and God’s servants will see His face.
We worship God and the Lamb! Our God does not abandon His creation; behold, He is making all things new!
