

Today's Scripture Reading

2 Corinthians 9⁶⁻¹¹

The point is this: the one who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and the one who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully. Each of you must give as you have made up your mind, not regretfully or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. As it is written,

"He scatters abroad; he gives to the poor;
his righteousness endures forever."

He who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will supply and multiply your seed for sowing and increase the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way for your great generosity, which will produce thanksgiving to God through us,

Call to Worship

Come, people of God—let us gather to worship the One who gives seed to the sower and bread for the journey.

We come to give thanks to the Giver of every good gift.

From our small jars and open hands, God multiplies grace.

We come to sow generously,
trusting the Lord of the harvest.

In our worship, we plant praise, in our giving, we plant faith.

May gratitude take root,
and joy overflow to the glory of God.

Come, let us worship the God who enriches us in every way –

So that we may be generous on every occasion!
