

Today's Scripture Reading

Colossians 1¹³⁻²⁰

For he has rescued us from the dominion of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of the Son he loves, in whom we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.

The Son is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn over all creation. For in him all things were created: things in heaven and on earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones or powers or rulers or authorities; all things have been created through him and for him. He is before all things, and in him all things hold together. And he is the head of the body, the church; he is the beginning and the firstborn from among the dead, so that in everything he might have the supremacy. For God was pleased to have all his fullness dwell in him, and through him to reconcile to himself all things, whether things on earth or things in heaven, by making peace through his blood, shed on the cross.

Call to Worship

God has rescued us from the dominion of darkness.
He has brought us into the kingdom of His beloved Son.

In Christ we have redemption, the forgiveness of sins.
The Son of Man came not to be served,
but to serve and to give His life as a ransom for many.

Jesus Christ is the image of the invisible God,
the firstborn over all creation.
All things were created through Him and for Him,
and in Him all things hold together.

Through Christ, God was pleased to reconcile all things to Himself, making peace through the blood of His cross.
If anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation!
We worship Jesus Christ, our Redeemer and Lord!
