

TODAY'S SCRIPTURE READINGS

1 John 3¹

See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and so we are. The reason why the world does not know us is that it did not know him.

Ephesians 3¹⁴

For this reason I bow my knees before the Father,

Call to Worship:

Our relationships with our fathers are complicated.

For some of us, our father’s love is like God’s love – too deep, too long, too wide, too strong to measure.

Some of our dads are here; some were never here.

For some of us, God’s love fills in the empty spaces our fathers left behind.

All of us are shaped by the relationship or lack of relationship with our fathers.

On this day when we remember what it means to have a father or be a father, we recognize the importance of fathers in our communities. We pledge as a congregation to love and nurture the fathers among us so that they will manifest the love of God in all that they do.
