

Today's Scripture Reading

Isaiah 49¹⁻⁷

Listen to me, O coastlands; pay attention, you peoples from far away!
 The Lord called me before I was born; while I was in my mother's womb he named me.
 He made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand he hid me;
 he made me a polished arrow; in his quiver he hid me away.
 And he said to me, "You are my servant, Israel, in whom I will be glorified."
 But I said, "I have labored in vain; I have spent my strength for nothing and vanity;
 yet surely my cause is with the Lord and my reward with my God."

And now the Lord says, who formed me in the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob back to him, and that Israel might be gathered to him, for I am honored in the sight of the Lord, and my God has become my strength—he says, "It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob and to restore the survivors of Israel; I will give you as a light to the nations, that my salvation may reach to the end of the earth."

Thus says the Lord, the Redeemer of Israel and his Holy One, to one deeply despised, abhorred by the nations, the slave of rulers,
 "Kings shall see and stand up; princes, and they shall prostrate themselves, because of the Lord, who is faithful, the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you."

Call to Worship

Come, all who are waiting and wondering.

We come with hope, and we come with questions.

Come, all who have labored and feel unseen.

We come trusting that our cause is with the Lord.

God has called us by name and formed us for a purpose.

We will wait for the Lord and listen for God’s voice.

Come, let us worship the One who is faithful.

We come to worship the Lord. Amen.
