

Today's Scripture Readings

Luke 24^{25-27, 44-49}

He said to them, "How foolish you are, and how slow to believe all that the prophets have spoken! Did not the Messiah have to suffer these things and then enter his glory?" And beginning with Moses and all the Prophets, he explained to them what was said in all the Scriptures concerning himself.

He said to them, "This is what I told you while I was still with you: Everything must be fulfilled that is written about me in the Law of Moses, the Prophets and the Psalms."

Then he opened their minds so they could understand the Scriptures. He told them, "This is what is written: The Messiah will suffer and rise from the dead on the third day, and repentance for the forgiveness of sins will be preached in his name to all nations, beginning at Jerusalem. You are witnesses of these things. I am going to send you what my Father has promised; but stay in the city until you have been clothed with power from on high."

Call to Worship

Come, let us worship the risen Christ, the One promised in the Scriptures.

Lord Jesus, open our minds to understand Your Word.

The Messiah suffered and rose from the dead on the third day.

In His name, repentance and forgiveness of sins are proclaimed to all nations.

We are called to be witnesses of these things.

Holy Spirit, clothe us with power from on high and make us faithful. The whole story finds its center and fulfillment in Jesus Christ. Come, let us worship our crucified and risen Lord!
