

Mark 12[38-44]

As he taught, Jesus said, “Watch out for the teachers of the law. They like to walk around in flowing robes and be greeted with respect in the marketplaces, and have the most important seats in the synagogues and the places of honor at banquets. They devour widows’ houses and for a show make lengthy prayers. These men will be punished most severely.”

Jesus sat down opposite the place where the offerings were put and watched the crowd putting their money into the temple treasury. Many rich people threw in large amounts. But a poor widow came and put in two very small copper coins, worth only a few cents.

Calling his disciples to him, Jesus said, “Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put more into the treasury than all the others. They all gave out of their wealth; but she, out of her poverty, put in everything—all she had to live on.”

Call to Worship

Do not be afraid, little flock,

For it is our Father’s good pleasure to give us the kingdom.

We come with full hands and with empty hands,

With much to offer, and with very little.

Jesus saw a widow place two small coins in the treasury.

He saw not only what she gave, but what it cost her.

God’s grace was at work among the churches of Macedonia.

Even in hardship and poverty, their joy overflowed in generosity.

For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Lord, turn our hearts toward You and our hands toward our neighbors.

Come, let us worship Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us.

We are blessed to be a blessing. Let us worship God!
