

Today's Scripture Reading

Romans 12¹⁻⁸

I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, on the basis of God's mercy, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your reasonable act of worship. Do not be conformed to this age, but be transformed by the renewing of the mind, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect.

For by the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think of yourself more highly than you ought to think but to think with sober judgment, each according to the measure of faith that God has assigned. For as in one body we have many members and not all the members have the same function, so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually we are members one of another. We have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us: prophecy, in proportion to faith; ministry, in ministering; the teacher, in teaching; the encourager, in encouragement; the giver, in sincerity; the leader, in diligence; the compassionate, in cheerfulness.

Call to Worship

Brothers and Sisters, in view of God's mercy, offer yourselves a living sacrifice: holy and pleasing to God.

This is our spiritual act of worship: to give our whole selves to the One who gave everything for us.

Do not conform to the pattern of this world,
but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.

We come to be shaped by grace, rooted in love,
and rising in faithful service.

We are one body with many members, each with gifts to offer.

On this Commitment Sunday, we bring our gifts,
our time, our hearts: ready to serve.

Let us worship with full devotion and open hands.

Rooted in Christ and rising by grace, we commit ourselves anew to God's purpose!
