Morning Message: “What Does This Mean?”

Liturgist: Jo Steele Kraus

Organist/Pianist: Pat Ziegelmeier

Clarinetist: Amie Kendrick

Choir Director: Dr. Philip Shuman

Opening Prayer

Liturgist: The day of Pentecost is here, and we are together. Will the works of God be known among us today?

All: We live in a valley of dry bones. Around and within us is emptiness.

Liturgist: God comes to us as a gentle breath or violent wind. Catch your breath, God’s breath, and live.

All: There are stirrings deep within that give us hope. There is a Spirit linking us to one another.

Liturgist: The fires of love dispel life’s shadows. God’s Spirit comes to give us new life.

All: Surely God is in this place! May the glory of God be reflected among us today!

Liturgist: Amazing God, how manifold are your works! The earth is full of life you have created, in forms too numerous to count. You have linked us, your people, to the earth and to all living things. We are interdependent. We can survive only if we have reverence for life. Come among us now to make your ways known. Help us to dream dreams and see visions of your intentions for this world and for your church. We pray this through Christ, who promised and delivered on his promise to send us the Holy Spirit.

All: Amen.

Scripture Reading: Acts 2:1-8, 12-15, 37-39

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, “Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, “What does this mean?”

But others sneered and said, “They are filled with new wine.” But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, “Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning.

Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, “Brothers, what should we do?” Peter said to them, “Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him.”

Adult Sunday School Class:

The Jesus Revolution: Learning from Christ's First Followers by Leith Anderson

Starts June 6 — Church Library

Journey through the book of Acts, discover the leaps of faith taken by the early church to spread the news of the miracles they'd witnessed and the message they'd received. Their devotion and perseverance challenges us to step out in faith and make a difference in Jesus' name. We can experience Jesus' presence and power as the early church did, and be part of the ongoing movement to change the world with his revolutionary message.

Let Melissa Brown (785-443-5425) know ASAP if a book is needed. Books are $17.
