Morning Message: "Confusion"

Today's Music by:

Monica Miller & Pat Ziegelmeier

Today's Liturgy:

Call to Worship:

Liturgist: In the beginning God created the world and called it good.

People: We worship God the Creator with mystery and delight.

Liturgist: Humanity is born in the image and likeness of God.

People: We worship God the Redeemer with our finite limitations.

Liturgist: The journey of life demands questions and answers.

People: We worship God the Sustainer with curiosity and joy. We join together in praise and thanksgiving of the One who gives us purpose and significance. Amen.

Responsive Psalm Reading:

Liturgist: For it was you who formed my inward parts,

People: you knit me together in my mother's womb

Liturgist: I praise you, for you are fearful and wonderful.

People: Wonderful are your works.

Liturgist: You know me very well;

People: my frame was not hidden from you, when I was being made in secret, intricately wrought in the depths of the earth.

Liturgist: Your eyes beheld my unformed substance;

People: in your book were written the days that were formed for me, every day, before they came into being.

Liturgist: How profound to me are your thoughts, O God! How vast is the sum of them!

People: If I could count them, they are more than the sand. When I awake I am still with you.

Liturgist: O that you would slay the wicked, O God, and that the bloodthirsty would depart from me,

People: those who maliciously defy you, who lift themselves up against you for evil.

Liturgist: Do I not hate them who hate you, O Lord? And do I not loathe them that rise up against you?

People: I hate them with perfect hatred; I count them my enemies.

Liturgist: Search me, O God, and know my heart! Try me and know my thoughts;

People: and see if there is any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting!
