Today's Scripture Reading

2 Corinthians 9[6-11]

Remember this: Whoever sows sparingly will also reap sparingly, and whoever sows generously will also reap generously. Each of you should give what you have decided in your heart to give, not reluctantly or under compulsion, for God loves a cheerful giver. And God is able to bless you abundantly, so that in all things at all times, having all that you need, you will abound in every good work. As it is written:

"They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor;
their righteousness endures forever."

Now he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food will also supply and increase your store of seed and will enlarge the harvest of your righteousness. You will be enriched in every way so that you can be generous on every occasion, and through us your generosity will result in thanksgiving to God.

Call to Worship

This is the day the Lord has made; let us rejoice and be glad in it.

We gather to worship Jesus Christ, our risen Lord.

God has loved us first and given us His Son.

We give thanks for the grace that saves us and shapes our lives.

Week by week, God calls us to live and give with purpose.

May our choices reflect His goodness and our trust in Him.

Scripture calls each of us to decide in our hearts what to give.

Not reluctantly or under compulsion, but freely and with joy.

Come, let us offer our praise, our gifts, and our lives to Jesus Christ, who gave Himself for us.

We are blessed to be a blessing. Let us worship God!
