

Today's Scripture Reading

John 10¹⁰⁻¹⁸

The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy. I came that they may have life and have it abundantly.

"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. The hired hand, who is not the shepherd and does not own the sheep, sees the wolf coming and leaves the sheep and runs away, and the wolf snatches them and scatters them. The hired hand runs away because a hired hand does not care for the sheep. I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and my own know me, just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. I have other sheep that do not belong to this fold. I must bring them also, and they will listen to my voice. So there will be one flock, one shepherd. For this reason the Father loves me, because I lay down my life in order to take it up again. No one takes it from me, but I lay it down of my own accord. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again. I have received this command from my Father."

Call to Worship

The God of all shepherds has called us here.

We come today, celebrating God’s love for us.

The Good Shepherd has given His life for us.

We come today, thanking Jesus for His witness and His teaching.

The Shepherding Spirit moves through us, bringing us new hope.

We come today ready to celebrate and praise God. AMEN.
